This is the third in a series of State Propositions to face voters November 7. In the series we have attempted to tell the meaning of the somewhat obscure explanations offered in the official voters manual (107 pages). So far, 11 of the 22 Propositions have been presented in this column.

Prop. 12: (Legislative Constitutional Amendment) Tax exemption for disabled veterans. (No. 10 regards blind veterans due from workmen's comp to workmen without heirs to an exemption to those totally disabled by service-connected loss of one or more arms or legs or both eyes. Extends exemption to surviving spouse.

Prop. 13: (ICA) Workmen's Compensation—Gives funds due from Workmen's Comp to workmen without heirs to an injury fund and will add about $2 million to total cost of workmen's comp. premium costs. Adds dramatically to self-insurance premium costs and to state and local governments. Should be given a "No" vote.

Prop. 14: (Initiative Constitutional Amendment) (Watson Initiative) Shifts taxes from property to non-property as a cost of more than $1 1/4 billion to state and local governments. Homeowners would pay more in sales and other taxes than they would save via 14. Vote "No."

Prop. 15: (ICA) State Employee Salaries. Requires that state employees' salaries, including those of state college and university personnel be raised to prevailing rates in private and public employment. Raises cannot be reduced or eliminated except by two-third vote of legislature. Cannot be vetoed by governor. Permits public agencies and officials to enter into collective bargaining establishing terms of employment of public employees. Vote "No."

Prop. 16: (ICA) Higher Salaries for Highway Patrol Officers. Raises salaries to the level of the maximum rate paid policemen or deputy sheriffs. Removes governor's power to reduce or veto. Vote "No."

Prop. 17: (ICA) Death Penalty. Passage would allow the reimposition of capital punishment under evenly-applied, mandatory provisions by overriding California Supreme Court decision of June, 1972. Vote "Yes."

Halloween Grows More Hazardous

Halloween isn't what it used to be.

Today there is faster traffic on the streets; psychopaths who put dangerous drugs—or razor blades in candy, and more and more residents who have become fed up with Halloween because teenagers make the rounds for handouts in competition with their little brothers and sisters.

Even at best, Halloween has become a hazardous activity. To reduce danger somewhat, Quaker Oats is supplying to most school kids of Halloween age a Willie Wonka Safety Kit. Willie Wonka is the name used to sell one of their candy bar products.

The free kit contains a Willie Wonka "Skrunch" candy bar (naturally), two highly reflective plastic bags with the admonition "Save it till you get home", and two reflective labels which are to be stuck to the back of the little ones—with space for his name and address in case he gets disoriented and needs help.

A pamphlet for parents is included and some mighty fine tips are listed. One—a good one—asks that make-up be used instead of masks that obscure the vision of the little ones. Others: accept only wrapped or sealed candy, wear or carry some kind of reflector after dark, and as important as any, "trick or treat" only near home. It suggests that homes without exterior lights should not be visited.

To all this we ask local Parent-Teacher groups, "what happened?"

Halloween carnivals were born to keep small fry off the street for that many hours—keeping potential hazards to them to a minimum.

This year school carnivals are being spread from Saturday Oct. 28 to Halloween October 31. There's even a Sunday afternoon carnival scheduled.

The objection to carnivals on nights other than Halloween is that it frees the little tykes for Tuesday night roaming with the aforementioned attendant hazards.

As painful an idea as it is to accept, it appears that changing the carnival date is done to encourage better income. Operating PTAs requires money and the need for funds is understandable.

But those PTAs which have moved from the original concept should re-examine their policies to see if the income is commensurate with the hazard.

Mt Miguel Advisory Council to be Formed

A Citizen's Advisory Council Steering Committee has been formed at Mount Miguel High School to assist Principal Robert Pyle in forming a permanent Citizens' Advisory Council. The Grossmont District Board of Trustees requested each high school in the district to form such a council.

The council will consist of 20 elected members with equal numbers representing Spring Valley and Lemon Grove. It will provide an opportunity for citizens to work in an advisory capacity with the school principal in setting educational goals, identifying local needs, studying existing programs and recommending necessary changes.

Any adult living in Lemon Grove or Spring Valley within the Mount Miguel attendance boundaries is eligible to serve on the council. Anyone wishing to serve or to nominate someone may do so by phoning the Mount Miguel High School office 463-5551 by October 30.

Flood Control Meeting Set For This Evening

A meeting has been scheduled for this evening at 7:30 p.m. in room 1002 at Monte Vista High School.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will be for the purpose of discussion on proposed flood control work in Spring Valley.

LG Kiwanis Apple Days Underway

A refrigerator car containing 100,000 Washington Extra Fancy Delicious apples arrived in Lemon Grove this week and was opened in ceremonies Wednesday kicking off the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club's annual Apple Days.

The apples, which are available at the railroad siding at North and Imperial, will be sold for $10 per box of 100. Half and quarter boxes will also be available, according to Johnny Johnson, Kiwanis Apple Days chairman.

The apples will also be sold by the box by Kiwanis Club members and by the Mt. Miguel Key Club. The Key Club, as well as several other youth projects including the Lemon Grove Youth Center, will benefit from the sale.

For those who don't wish to purchase a large quantity of the fruit, several local merchants have indicated that they will offer them singly.

Developers To Provide Access

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees met Tuesday night and approved a voluntary insurance plan for music students and heard a report on the College Crest subdivision.

The voluntary music student insurance would make available insurance for music students on their own instruments against theft or damage.

Dr. Robert Sutton, superintendent, reported that the College Crest subdivision developers indicated that they will provide pedestrian access to San Miguel ave. from the development.

This was in contrast to what developers told trustees at a meeting October 10, claiming that costs would be prohibitive. The developers at that time offered the district a gift of that portion of the land bordering San Miguel so that the district could provide its own access.

It turned out that the land was necessary to keep density legal so the developers withdrew the offer and made plans to build the access.

Pedestrian access was the only thing stopping the district from issuing a letter stating that schools are available.

LG Woman Arrested On Stabbing Charge

A Lemon Grove woman was arrested last week and charged with assault with a deadly weapon in a stabbing case.

Reports from the Sheriff's Department indicated that the suspect, Mary E. Collins, 22, of 3145 Vista dr., Lemon Grove, had been drinking in a Lemon Grove bar with two female friends, at about 8:30 p.m. October 14.

When the three women left the bar, they were followed by two men they had met there, including the victim in the case, Anthony John Kasek, of Harbison Canyon.

The women stopped the vehicle at a dead end and the suspect and one of her companions got into an altercation with the victim. The argument ended when the suspect allegedly stabbed the victim with a knife.

The suspect then got back in her vehicle and drove off at a high rate of speed, with the victim and his companion in pursuit.

The victim caught the suspect vehicle, then pulled in front, forcing the suspect vehicle to stop. Sheriff's deputies arrived moments later after the incident was reported by a witness.

The victim was transported to Grossmont Hospital where he was treated and released.

Bond Issue Suggestions Due From Advisory Group

Election Possible Early Next Year

Final recommendations of the Grossmont High School District Citizens' Advisory Committee will be formulated next Wednesday night when that group meets.

The group, which is responsible for recommending whether or not a bond issue election should be held to finance the district's ninth high school, will be expected to report its findings to the district board of trustees November 6.

The high school district has levied a special tax this year to construct the first increment of the new school, but if a bond election is held, that money would be used to lower the tax rate in the future.

An additional responsibility of the advisory committee is to determine, should the bond election be suggested, the amount it would be and the amount of the project to be constructed.

The first increment would house freshmen students only and would be designed to reduce overcrowded conditions at Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista.

Should a bond vote be held for the purpose of constructing the first and second phases of the project, or the entire campus, however, the school would house all grade levels.

School district superintendent Austin Sellery indicated that he feels the committee is leaning toward at least the first two increments and a bond election for early next year.

Within the advisory committee, however, there has been some friction.

Hal Logan, chairman of the East County Committee of the San Diego Taxpayers Association, released a letter recently containing suggestions for the district. Logan is a member of the advisory committee, but his views have contrasted with other members.

The letter suggested that the district expand existing facilities by adding classrooms and that schools now on double sessions should remain that way until the additions could be built.

The letter also suggested studying the 45-15 year 'round school program, as it is now in use by the La Mesa Spring Valley School District. The final point in the letter suggested bussing students to alleviate overcrowded conditions.

When the rezoning was first approved, the planning association was instructed to make progress toward the master plan, or the extension may have been denied.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, the threat was received at about 10:50 a.m., calling for the clerk to drop the money off at the Highway 94 onramp on Buena Vista.

The clerk complied, then contacted the Sheriff's Department, which sent a helicopter into the area in a search for a suspect vehicle believed to have contained an alleged accomplice.

The Sheriff's Department indicated that a similar call was received at another photo booth in the Big T Shopping Center in Spring Valley, but Monte Vista High School. All local residents are invited to attend.

TIME CHANGE — Barbara Kotnik, who is reigning Miss Lemon Grove, was on hand this week to remind local residents that the time will change over the weekend. To avoid showing up an hour early for church Sunday, set the clocks in the house back one hour at bedtime Saturday night. Daylight savings time officially ends at 2 a.m. Sunday. The grandfather clock Miss Kotnik operates is a 200-year old piece offered at High Hopes Antiques in Lemon Grove.

Brown Denied CPO Reconsideration After French Attacks 'Land Grab'

The County Planning Organization (CPO) now looms larger as a "cause" in the race for supervisor in the county's second district.

In a news conference Thursday, Gene French attacked CPO's open space study as an "irresponsible land grab" by which privately owned land would be made into open space preserves "without purchase."

French identified the CPO plan with his opponent, Richard Brown, who is a member of CPO Policy Committee and has twice been chairman.

Thursday morning French issued a challenge to Brown to repudiate the land grab which became CPO policy from a study made by the San Francisco firm of Livingston and Blayney at a cost of $25,000.

French, president of the San Diego Board of Education, charged that the open space study had been withheld from general circulation since approved on June 19.

Brown, an El Cajon city councilman and a machine tool manufacturing firm owner, had argued earlier in the campaign that CPO was not a third level of government as charged by his opponent and by members of the County Board of Supervisors.

Brown said Thursday that the finished CPO report was not in the same form as when he voted to accept it June 19.

He appealed to the CPO board of directors to reconsider the study calling it "economically unfeasible" and "unacceptable to anyone who believes in private ownership of land."

The board rejected his plea but referred the report back to an ad hoc committee on open space.

French had charged that the open space study was "a typical CPO study . . . produced behind closed doors—virtually without public input or public scrutiny."

At a meeting of the Building Contractors Assn. Thursday night French said Brown voted for the CPO open space plan as member of its Policy Committee and should be held accountable for its "Socialistic trend."

Brown said at the meeting that he didn't recall voting for the plan and that the plan is economically unsound . . . a bad report.

The CPO plan calls for a "guided controls and good planning." It calls for cities and unincorporated areas to be linked by an integrated system of parks trails and green belts.

Recital Set Tomorrow

Grossmont College's Department of Music will present a student recital featuring Louise MacGillivray, horn; Barbara Ransom, piano and the college's Woodwind Ensemble at 11 a.m. tomorrow in the Fine Arts Recital Hall.

Miss MacGillivray and Miss Ransom will play works by Mozart, Bach and Debussy while the Woodwind Ensemble will feature the works of Milhaud. The ensemble includes Deborah Burt; Carl McCullough, oboe; Charles MacLeod, clarinet; Anita McCullough, bassoon and Louis MacGillivray, horn.

The public is invited to hear the recital featuring advanced music students. There is no charge for admission.

"These goals are laudable," French said "but I strongly oppose . . . any plan . . . that would confiscate or devalue property without compensation."

CPO policy urges County and Cities " . . . to adopt strong policies . . . to preserve open space without purchase," by "every possible, legally permissible device short of purchase . . ."

IT'S CONFISCATORY

"It smacks of confiscation of property rights. Confiscation of land, arbitrary downzoning . . . is the kind of approach that led to the Boston Tea Party," French said.

"If the County and/or Cities were to purchase 1,000 square miles of open space located in the western third of the County the Assessor's Office estimated that the cost to be $3.7 billion. It would shift an unbearable burden to the homeowners and renters, increasing local property taxes as much as 30 per cent. That kind of public policy decision should be made by the people, not in some smoke-filled room at the Comprehensive Planning Organization," French said.

"The CPO Open Space Concept even exceeds the wildest dreams of the most extreme pie-in-the-sky idealists," French said. "It shows 75 per cent of the open space in the County already is in public ownership. The report suggests that 90 per cent of the remaining 950 square miles should be 'protected' from development for at least the next 18 years."

"It is an example of the major problem," French said, "that of part-time city council-runners, the Playboys and the men making long range regional decisions."

Sups Grant Extension Of Interim Zone

The County Board of Supervisors approved an extension of interim rezoning in Lemon Grove for one year at the regular Tuesday meeting October 10.

The action came one week after supervisors were scheduled to hear the matter, but only three members of the board were present when the item came up on the agenda, and it requires the vote of four members of the board.

The bulk of Lemon Grove residential property was rezoned from R-2 and R-2A to R-1A at the onset of the Lemon Grove Planning Association.

The rezoning increased the minimum lot size from two units per 6,000 square feet to one unit. The temporary zone would have expired November 6, but will now be in effect for an additional year.

The rezoning was originally scheduled to curtail development of the area until the Lemon Grove Planning Association could have time to complete a master plan of the community.

When the rezoning was first approved, the planning association was instructed to make progress toward the master plan, or the extension may have been denied.

VdO Planners Meet

The Valle de Oro Planning Association, made up of concerned citizens from Spring Valley and the surrounding areas, met Wednesday night in room 1002 at Monte Vista High School.

The planners listened to a presentation by local fire district representatives and discussed a questionnaire which was recently circulated throughout the community.

The next meeting of the association will be November 8 at 7:30 p.m. in room 1002 at Center in Spring Valley, but Monte Vista High School. All local residents are invited to attend.

About $65 was lost Monday by the Dean's Photo booth in Lemon Grove after a clerk there received a telephone threat that if the money was not dropped off, she would be shot by a sniper.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, the threat was received at about 10:50 a.m., calling for the clerk to drop the money off at the Highway 94 onramp on Buena Vista.

The clerk complied, then contacted the Sheriff's Department, which sent a helicopter into the area in a search for a suspect vehicle believed to have contained an alleged accomplice.

The Sheriff's Department indicated that a similar call was received at another photo booth in the Big T Shopping Center in Spring Valley, but Monte Vista High School. All local residents are invited to attend.

Mail Bag

Dear Editor,
The Interfaith Committee for Reconciliation & Justice supports the non-violent movement of the farm workers and Cesar Chavez to organize to secure the basic rights long enjoyed by other workers. Responding to this moral issue the majority of the religious community has affirmed the efforts of farm workers to establish a union as necessary to overcome powerlessness and exploitation. Proposition 22 would prohibit the participation of most seasonal farm workers in the union elections, cripple their right to strike, and make volunteer consumer boycotts illegal. The Interfaith Committee for Reconciliation & Justice strongly urges a no vote on 22.

The textbooks are written for students in grades one through eight.

One set of text materials will be displayed in the library

BOUTIQUE OFFERINGS — Mrs. Gloria Niedzwiecki, left, chairman of the Golden Avenue School Autumn Carnival Boutique Booth, and school principal Ilse Hanning, prepare items to be sold in the booth, one of many scheduled for the school's PTA carnival, which will be held Sunday from 1:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Local PTA Highlights

Golden Avenue

It's carnival time at Golden Avenue School.

The PTA-sponsored Autumn Carnival, formerly known as the Halloween Carnival, will be held Sunday from 1:30 p.m. to 6 p.m., according to PTA president Marilyn Linn.

Included in the affair will be new game booths for kiddies, a "jump for joy" giant air balloon, pony rides for the little tykes, as well as a featured attraction, the dunking machine, said carnival chairman Neva Conrad.

Another new attraction this year will be the Autumn Boutique, featuring hand-made gift items such as dried flower arrangements, hand-knitted ponchos and sweaters, Christmas decorations, lizard cages, and many others, according to Gloria Niedzwiecki, who is in charge of the booth.

The boutique will offer the largest selection in carnival history, said Mrs. Niedzwiecki, who indicated that it would be a good place to do some early Christmas shopping.

Other "biggies" will include a mystery fortune teller, a make-up booth for young girls, cake walks, a Mexican-style bingo game, and food booths.

The dunking machine, which is expected to draw some of the largest crowds, will dump a teacher or student in a tank of water when the target is hit by a well-aimed baseball.

Bancroft

Another "safe and exciting Halloween" is scheduled Tuesday night at Bancroft Elementary School, according to Mrs. Elaine Pecoraro, who is co-chairman of the school's annual Halloween Carnival, sponsored by the school Parent-Teacher Association.

Planned for the affair, which will get underway at 5 p.m. and conclude at 9 p.m. on the school grounds, are hamburger, hot dog and punch booths, as well as several "fun and game" booths, said Mrs. Lynnda Hildum, co-chairing the event along with Mrs. Pecoraro.

Among the featured attractions will be a sweet shop, a country store where gift items will be sold, a cake walk, and a costume parade for the kiddies, with fifteen prizes to be awarded to top entries.

Baby sitting will be provided.

Mt. Miguel

Mount Miguel Parent-Teacher-Student Association will sponsor the annual "Back-to-School" night this evening. A brief PTSA business meeting will be held in the cafeteria at 7 p.m.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m. parents will follow their students daily schedule with abbreviated class periods. Teachers will acquaint parents with plans for the school year. Parents should have their student fill out a schedule in advance.

Refreshments will be furnished by the PTSA. Calendars will also be on sale as well as memberships to the PTSA.

Kempton Street

Kempton Street School will hold its annual Halloween Carnival this year on October 28 from 4 to 8 p.m., to be kicked off by a costume parade.

The carnival, sponsored by the school Parent Teacher Association, will also include a cake decorating contest for students in grades four, five and six, as well as a spaghetti dinner for parents and youngsters.

Also on tap are the usual booths and games for kiddies. The carnival is free, and dinner tickets will be sold for 85 cents for adults and 50 cents for children.

Santa Sophia

Santa Sophia Academy will hold its thirteenth annual Halloween Carnival Saturday evening, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

26,779 VOTERS MADE HIM NO. 1

Who backs Gene French for County Supervisor?
Well, it's no secret that 26,779 Second District voters do. They made him the No. 1 votegetter in last June's primary election when Gene topped all 11 other candidates.

Some of his supporters you know well. Like retiring County Supervisor Henry Boney. "I looked at all the candidates," says Boney. "Gene's experience as president of the San Diego Board of Education easily made him the best qualified. He has my vote."

San Diego Charger quarterback John Hadl is on the Gene French team. "I don't normally get involved in politics," says Hadl, "but Gene can do the best job and I want him as my Supervisor."

The county's top law enforcement officer, Sheriff John Duffy, says: "Gene and I agree that we need a strong law enforcement posture in this county. We're both very concerned about cracking down hard on drug pushers and peddlers."

Your friends and neighbors support Gene French, too.

Former Lemon Grove schools superintendent Byron Netzeley says, "Gene French has proved he can provide quality education for the lowest possible tax dollar. I'm convinced he can use the same experience as Supervisor and I urge that he be elected."

The Rev. Orval Butcher, pastor of Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church, says, "I have known Gene French for many years. He is an excellent administrator and his work with youth has been outstanding."

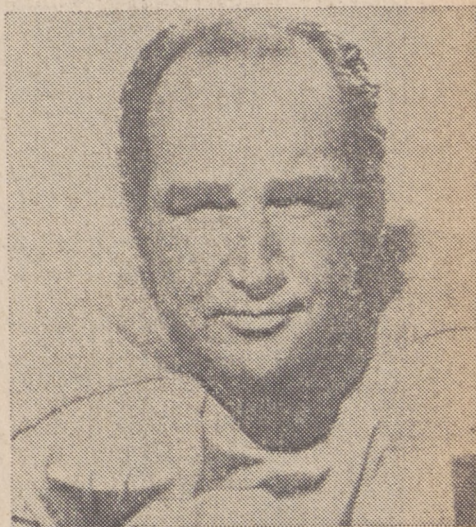

Several major organizations back Gene, too—the San Diego County Central Labor Council, County Employees Association, San Diego County Deputy Sheriff's Association and the Public Employees Coordinating Council.

Toreros Meet Loyola in Homecoming Game

University of San Diego USD upped its season record to a 3-3 last week with a convincing 28-6 victory over a homecoming match against Pomona College. The Toreros an aroused Loyola University team tonight. Game time is 7:30 in the USD stadium on campus.

Loyola went winless in its first three contests this year and failed to score a point in the process. In its most recent appearance, however, the Lions awoke to build a 19-6 lead over Pomona and lasted for a 19-18 decision.

Following Thursday's homecoming tussle, USD takes a breather for one week, returning for a home game with United States International University, Saturday, November 11.

Helix Center Celebrates 'Career Guidance Week'

Helix High School's Guidance Center is where it's at, according to what many of the school's 2,450 students think, said Russell Jackson, work placement and career development coordinator, who is celebrating National Career Guidance Week this week.

The multi-purpose center, established in 1970 to provide office space and facilities for counseling and related services, was born of desperation, Darrell Gould, a Helix counselor, said.

When an 18-year-old portable building became available, students, faculty and the Parent-Teacher-Student Association got together and refurbished it. To carpet the bare floors students brought mill ends and scraps. Recently school funds have provided a new, functional carpeting.

Functions of the Center are to provide career development data, to provide information about colleges and extend regular counseling services. Students can receive jobs through the center for either pay or experience. They also get school credit for working. Students can obtain Social Security cards and work permits there.

Students learn to prepare resumes for job interviews. The center also provides information about opportunities for voluntary work for the needy and disadvantaged.

Gould conducts his counseling activities in the center. Though most students are assigned to one of the other five counselors quartered in the administrative building, all students may use the facilities and services of the center.

Some 100 students use the facilities of the center daily, said David Landry, graduate assistant who works as an aide.

Miguel Marching Band Earns Review Honors

Mt. Miguel High School's marching band and drill team both won honors in the 15th annual Autumn Review Sunday but both will be spectators rather than participants in the New Year's Day Turnament of Roses Parade in Pasadena.

Mt. Miguel's band took first place in Class AA band competition with 92.6 points but Orange Glen High School captured sweepstakes laurels with a 94.9 and with it the right to represent San Diego in the Rose Parade.

Grossmont was second behind Miguel with Patrick Henry third.

The Matador cape corps, displaying much improvement in the past two weeks, took second place in the marching units Class AA with a 91.5 rating. Monte Vista was first with 92.8 and Orange Glen was best overall with a 93.2.

It is the first time Orange Glen has won the Autumn Review while Mt. Miguel has made the Rose Parade trip on five previous occasions.

Matador band director Dean Immel will now prepare his 120-piece group for appearances in the Autumn Band Amboree to be held in Aztec Bowl, November 4, and the Hawthorne Band Review in Hawthorne, November 11.

The little trailer who came to Spring Valley to be a savings and loan.

There appeared recently in Spring Valley a little trailer with big ideas. "Look," cried the people, "this trailer says he's La Jolla Federal savings and loan." And there were a few giggles and guffaws. Savings and loans were supposed to be mighty buildings with escalators and artificial plants. But the little trailer beamed confidently. He knew that before long he would be replaced by a neat building the community would be proud of.

In the meantime, he could offer Spring Valley the same nice things as the other branches of La Jolla Federal. Like the highest interest on insured savings allowed by law. Fast-working home loan programs. And a host of free services. He was right.

The good people of Spring Valley found the trailer one of the nicest places they'd ever done business with. He was just as good as those fancy savings and loans ever were. "Dig it," said the little trailer.

Matadors Blank 'Hillers; Top Grossmont League

By Doug Gegax

The Mt. Miguel High School football team, easy winners in its first two league encounters, dispelled myths that Grossmont is the league's best team and that the Miguel defense was a fluke.

The Matadors, in a must-win game on a muddy Helix field, toppled Grossmont 5-0, to extend their record to 3-0, including two shutouts, and lead in the battle with Helix and Granite Hills for the league title.

Granite Hills thumped El Capitan to extend its record to 2-1 last week, while Helix lost its first game of the year to Santana, a team Mt. Miguel shutout a week before, giving the Mats first place, a game in front.

Against Grossmont, Mt. Miguel's defense was immovable. The Foothillers took the opening kickoff but got nowhere in a hurry and were forced to punt on fourth and 21. Miguel took the ball and drove seventy yards to the Hiller 15, where quarterback Jess Jenner booted a field goal to put the local team in front to stay.

Grossmont's offense was continuously kicked around in the half and failed to even cross the 50-yard line. Miguel, constantly getting good field position, failed to score in the second period due to a fumble on the 4-yard line.

But what seemed to be a break for the Foothillers turned into disaster when Gary Klusman tackled Grossmont QB Tom Rundle in his own end zone for a safety, making it 5-0 at the end of the half.

The second half was a little different. Grossmont kicked off but the Matadors couldn't turn a first down and gave the ball to the 'Hillers.

Grossmont looked good on offense in the second half, with Rundle's passing adding to a 63-yard drive which ended in a fumble. Mount Miguel couldn't drive at all and once again the Foothillers received the punt.

They drove again—this time 70 yards to the Mount Miguel 1—but on fourth down the strong Matador defense held.

Again, when given the ball the local team couldn't start a drive. Grossmont again started to march down field. They drove to the 3-yard line but on fourth down Mount Miguel again held. Time ran out and the Matadors won.

Mt. Miguel will be back in action tomorrow night in its homecoming game against Granite Hills, beginning at 8 p.m. Granite Hills, down a game to the Matadors in the standings, feature an airborne offense and a stubborn defense.

SIDELINE PLAY — Mt. Miguel running back Ed Morris (34) leaps over teammate Dan McEwing, who was blocking on the sideline play before he slipped in the slimy Helix turf. Morris avoided the would-be tackler and broke loose for a first down on the play. Morris was among the top runners in Mt. Miguel's victory over the Grossmont Foothillers Friday night. (Mark Coffin photo)

REF MISSES — Referees in the Mt. Miguel-Grossmont encounter last week were watching the action elsewhere on this play, as Grossmont player gets away with facemasking of Mike Benson (54), an offensive guard.

Benson took the foul in stride and helped his team whip the Foothillers, 5-0 to take over sole possession of first place in the Grossmont League. (Mark Coffin photo)

Dave Love Whips John Dunn; Coliseum Cards Free Fights

by Max Goodwin

San Diego's own middleweight fighter, (Kearny Mesa High) classy David Love, continued his winning ways Friday night at the Coliseum. He took a unanimous 10-round main-go decision from John Dunn of Compton. The victory was not as outstanding as the referee and two judges indicated. They had Love 6-1, 5-1 and 5-4. The 5-4 by a judge from L.A. was more in line with this observer's judgment.

The two fighters showed so much respect for each other for first six rounds that part of the confrontation could have been set to music. With time running out in the seventh Love opened up with tattoo punches on Dunn's head and midriff. Dunn bounced back in the eighth with a flurry of blows and a shove that had Love hanging head-down on the audience side of the ropes. It was not a knock-down.

Love showed all of his class in the 10th when he opened

Dunn up, wide, got in some wicked left jabs and uppercuts that had Dunn dazed and wobbly as the fight ended.

It was the third fight for the pair. Friday's win gave Love a 2-1 advantage. He said he would not fight Dunn again unless he "gets in my way to the top."

In Coliseum preliminaries, welterweight Gonzalo Rodriguez of Imperial Beach, took the decision from Tom Coulson of Carson. Middleweight

Gulls-Phoenix Lock Pucks At Arena Tonight

The torrid rivalry between the San Diego Gulls and the Phoenix Roadrunners continues tonight at the Sports Arena. Gametime is scheduled for 7:30.

The Gulls and the Roadrunners met for the first time on Sunday and the two battled to a wild, high scoring 7-7 tie. A goal in the last seven seconds by the Runners Bob Barlow took victory away from the Gulls and saved a defeat, the first of the young season, from the Roadrunners.

The game Thursday will begin at 7:30 as the Gulls are beginning their mid-week games at an early starting hour. The following evening, the San Diegans travel to Utah to battle the Golden Eagles and then on Saturday, October 28, the Gulls return to San Diego to face Salt Lake in the Sports Arena. Game time for the Saturday contest is 8 p.m.

Tickets for the two upcoming games and all Gull home games can be purchased at the Arena ticket office, or all Central Ticket Agencies.

Women's Group Plans Annual Rummage Sale

The Women's Society of Christian Service at Foothills United Methodist Church of La Mesa will have a rummage sale Nov. 9 and 10 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mrs. John Bentley, Society Treasurer said the annual sale is the only money making project that the women have each year.

The money from the event and personal gifts from the group's members is used to fulfill the Society's pledge to the world missions program of the Methodist Church.

Chargers Return Sun. For Len Dawson, Chiefs

San Diego Stadium. Queen of Mission Valley. Castle on the riverbed. Home of sunshine and green grass. How sweet it is!

After playing five of six games, including the last four, on the road, the San Diego Chargers (2-3-1) return to San Diego Stadium Sunday to engage the Kansas City Chiefs (3-3). Kickoff is 1 p.m.

A crowd of more than 50,000 is expected to watch the two old American League rivals battle in what is shaping up as a wild four-team scramble for supremacy in the AFC West. Oakland leads with 3-2-1. Denver trails 2-4.

Even though always powerful Kansas City and Super Bowl champion Dallas are the next two opponents for his team, Charger Coach Harland Svare for the first time this year looked at the schedule and breathed easier. "We've got six of our eight remaining games at home, and we're still very much alive."

The Chargers have a six-game victory streak at San Diego Stadium, the last five games of 1971 and a 37-14 smash over Denver in their only 1972 home appearance to date. Toss in three wins and one tie in pre-season and San Diego has not lost at home in 10 games.

However, don't try to sell Kansas City on the so-called home field advantage. The Chiefs this year moved into their splendid new home, Arrowhead Stadium, and have proceeded to lose all three NFL games played there. Last Sunday, they were upset by the Philadelphia Eagles, 21-20.

So San Diego should be seeing plenty of Kansas City red Sunday—red faces, red tempers, red uniforms and the red vest of Coach Hank Stram.

Sixteen-year veteran quarterback Len Dawson propels the Kansas City attack which includes runners Ed Podolak, Wendell Hayes, Mike Adamle and rookie Jeff Kinney, receivers Otis Taylor and Elmo Wright, tight ends Morris Stoud and Willie Frazier, and premier place-kicker Jan Stenerud.

All-pro middle linebacker Willie Lanier heads one of the league's strongest and most experienced defensive units.

Final Cycle Race Set

The South Bay Speedway overall points champion will be crowned Friday night, in the final California Motor Racing Enterprises' professional steeplechase and half-mile motorcycle points program of the season at the South Bay track with the first race beginning at 8 p.m.

In the Championship battle, Ward Ring of National City holds a slim nine point lead over 15-year-old Earl Roloff of Spring Valley, as Ring has collected 308 points with Roloff having a total of 299.

San Diego's Sal Peluso has shot up in the point standings in recent weeks and is now only 21 points behind Ring with 287 points.

The U. S. now has 699 commercial television stations and 206 non-commercial outlets.

New Quarterback Leads Monarchs To First Victory

Monte Vista's star quarterback is still hobbling about, but the team's star quarterback led the Monarchs to victory last Friday night by running for a pair of touchdowns and passing for two more.

Art Spahr, the star quarterback of the Monarchs and expected to be the league's premier passer this season, sat out his third game Friday, but a new star was born when former Jayvee signal caller Steve Perdue was brought up.

Perdue, who led the Monte Vista Jayvee to four straight victories before being elevated to the varsity, hit Mike Davis on a 9-yard pass in the first quarter, then flipped a second serial to halfback Pete Loftin for the two-point conversion to get the game underway.

The Monarchs weren't heard from again until the fourth quarter, after El Cajon had tied the game, 8-8, when the new man broke loose for a 43-yard touchdown run. Then another nine-yard pass and a 7-yard run put the game on ice.

The Monarchs will test "super-sophomore" again tomorrow night against the angry Helix Highlanders, 25-6 upset victims to Santana last week. Helix can afford no more losses if the team is to win the league title, while Monte Vista must win its remaining games to finish in contention.

Coryell Seeks 100th Career Victory Saturday

The Aztecs' 35-19 win over the Falcons of Bowling Green, Ohio Saturday night was not the most elegant game presented by Head Coach Don Coryell.

There were a few sparkles in the otherwise pedestrian game. Wide receivers Isaac Curtis and Tim Boyer glittered in the first half. Greg Moses and Keith Denson, reserves, showed some class in the later half but it was Curtis again who showed grace and ability as usual.

The game was laced with fumbles, (5) interceptions (6) and penalties, (12). But Coryell takes his wins (99 career) whenever he can.

Attendance was 36,121 with much of the total being the result of Al Bahr Shrine Night.

Bowling Green came back strong in the final quarter with 14 points and were on the Aztec's one yard line when the game ended.

Coryell will be seeking his 100th victory Saturday night when the Aztecs face Fresno State at the Stadium at 7:30 p.m.

If history has anything to do with games, the odds may be in San Diego's favor. Two years ago, Fresno State came into a game with the Aztecs in San Diego Stadium with a 6-1 record and left with a 6-2 after a 56-14 drubbing.

The Aztecs suffered a major blow to their defensive unit in the Bowling Green game when middle linebacker Jay Crancy suffered torn cartilage in the right knee and underwent surgery Saturday night. He is out for the season.

Rabies Shots Seen For Local Youngster

Rabies shots for Michael Prouty, 14, of 10707 Jamacha Blvd., Spring Valley, will begin Monday unless an Irish setter which reportedly bit the youngster at an Imperial County campground is found.

The youngster was bitten at about 11 a.m. Saturday while he was operating a motorcycle in a federal campground north of Winterhaven.

Owners of the dog were apparently camping in a camper and mobile home at the scene.

Granite Hills, Helix Hurdles For Miguel Loop Championship

By John Nicholson

Only one team—Mt. Miguel—remained undefeated last week after three rounds of Grossmont League football action, but the Matadors will have to win at least one more to become decided title favorites.

Miguel toppled defending CIF champion Grossmont, 5-0 last week, to clear the first of three big hurdles which spice the path to the loop crown.

The second hurdle will be Granite Hills tomorrow night, then the third will be Helix a week later. Last week's action enlarged the threats presented by those two teams.

Granite Hills thumped El Capitan, 20-6, on an impressive aerial display by quarterback Joe Roth, while Helix was stunned, 25-6 by Santana, in a game that makes the remaining schedule all must-win games for the tired Highlanders.

With the Granite Hills defense ripening enough to stop a rugged El Cap ground game, and quarterback Roth getting in the groove with his passes, Granite Hills could be the top threat to Mt. Miguel. The Matadors have a tremendous ground defense but are yet untied stopping the pass play. The Matadors also feature a somewhat ground-oriented offense. The game will be the Matadors' homecoming affair and will get underway at 8 p.m.

An angry bunch of Helix Highlanders, meanwhile, will host Monte Vista, losers of two of three league games and winner only over the hapless El Cajon Braves. The only way to stop Helix is to bolster the defense and rush with the backfield. Monte Vista has so far used a potent aerial offense as its best defensive weapon.

A pair of out-of-the-running teams will clash at Valley stadium when El Cajon hosts El Capitan. El Cap seeks to even its season record at 2-2, while the Braves will try to penetrate the win column for the first time.

A pair of semi-contenders will do battle when Grossmont tangles with Santana. The Sul-tans last week upended Helix to establish itself as a team to reckon with, while Grossmont dropped its second game of the season to Mt. Miguel.

What's going to electrify our tomorrow?

• The supply and demand dilemma.

As our country and its economy grow, so will the demand for electricity. Yet, throughout the nation, utilities are finding it harder and harder to build much-needed power plants and transmission lines. Nuclear plant construction has been particularly hampered. The problem is clear...where will our future electricity come from?

• The sun's a long way off.

Some think tomorrow's electricity could come from the sun. Or the tides. Or even giant windmills. Exciting ideas. But not very likely. According to the President's Office of Science and Technology, there is no reliable alternative to fossil-fueled and nuclear plants to meet our needs through the year 2000. So where does that leave us?

• We planned tomorrow yesterday.

From scratch, it takes about five years to plan and build a conventional steam power plant. It takes about twice that for a nuclear station. So we've had to plan the next decade with the technology and resources we have right now.

• More clean nuclear power is a must.

We're hoping to complete two more nuclear units at San Onofre in the late 70's. Unfortunately, construction has already been delayed two years. So we must fall back on the only other alternative...

• We'll have to build more fossil fuel plants.

We've scheduled an addition to our Encina plant as soon as numerous environmental studies and government approvals are complete. Also, we've begun initial planning for additional gas turbine installations throughout our service territory.

• New energy from the earth.

Toward the end of the decade, we hope to have two additional sources of power. Right now, our engineers and others are working on Utah's Kaiparowits plateau, exploring ways to tap its rich coal deposits and still protect the environment. We're also doing geo-thermal drilling in the Imperial Valley looking for underground steam to run power-producing turbines.

Part of the answer is up to you.

Right now, we're ahead of the energy crisis. We're doing everything we can to stay there. At SDG&E, we have more than 3600 people making sure you'll have the electricity you need...and a better environment in which to enjoy it. But we still need your cooperation and support. You can help us by using the energy you need wisely. And by realizing that facilities for future power must be part of today's planning. With your help, we can electrify the next century just as effectively as we have the last.

Avondale School

A 4 p.m. costume parade will kick off Avondale School's annual Halloween carnival Tuesday afternoon, according to Mrs. John Richardson, president of the sponsoring Parent-Teacher Association.

Included at the affair will be booths with live fish, balloons and darts, a basketball toss, a grab bag, a spook house, and a country store. Those seeking snacks will be accommodated at a hot dog booth, which will also offer hamburgers, chili, "Sloppy Joes", coffee, pie, soda pop, and popcorn.

Co-chairmen for the carnival are Mrs. Alan Hamerschmidt and Mrs. Ben Stewart, who indicated that it will run through 8:30 p.m.

Casa de Oro

Saturday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. has been planned for the Casa de Oro Elementary School PTA's annual Halloween carnival.

Included in the fun and games will be cartoons, refreshments, and prizes.

S. V. Elementary

The Spring Valley Elementary PTA will hold its annual Halloween carnival Tuesday, from 5 to 9 p.m. at the Spring Valley Elementary School, 38445 Spring dr., Spring Valley.

There will be a bazaar, cake walks and games with prizes. Hamburgers, hot dogs, tacos, chili, chili dogs, cold drinks and coffee and pie will be sold.

Traffic Rules Q's and A's

Each week a series of questions and answers will be published in these columns. Readers are urged to call or write in questions to which we want an official answer. Answer seekers need not identify themselves. Address "Traffic" P.O. Box 127, Lemon Grove, CA 92045 or call 469-0101.

A driver was cited after he skidded into a vehicle involved in a prior accident. How can this be?

The driver was not observing a basic rule of the road—keep your car at a safe speed for existing circumstances. A tip from CHP officers: drivers are usually able to maneuver around obstructing vehicles if they let up on the brake enough to regain control of the car.

If I am traveling at the maximum posted speed in the fast lane of a freeway, why should I move to a slower lane just to accommodate a driver who is obviously breaking the speed law?

Motorists must yield to faster traffic. You've got to move over even though you feel that you are being made an accessory before the fact. There's a real good chance some traffic officer will make a believer of your speedy friend before his trip is finished.

A neighbor was cited for speed although the speedometer in his car never topped 65. He was advised to have his speedometer checked although his car is nearly new. Who has time and money to have that done. I feel that the cop should have taken his word for the speed.

It really doesn't take time or money—unless you count the money you've spent on those oversized tires. "New fad" tires can speed you along the freeway 5-13 miles an hour faster than your speedometer indicates. Whether you have factory tires or new ones you can check your speed by holding your vehicle's speed at flat 60. With an occasional glance at the second hand of your wrist watch for 60 seconds over a measured mile—there's one near Oceanside. If you have made the mile in 55 seconds you are 5/60th or 5 miles an hour faster than the speedometer indicated.

ART ACTIVITIES

In other activity related to traffic, the California Highway Patrol Accident Reduction Team (ART) in Lemon Grove, under the command of officer W. H. Pasley, is completing its bicycle safety program in Lemon Grove schools.

Youngsters are being given safety training relative to bikes, buses, and pedestrians. Later, in the schoolyard, they are shown the use of sirens and flares. Finally, CHP has a "Stop on a Dime" program in which a "chalk gun" is fired onto the roadway at command and another mark is made when the driver applies his brakes. Still another mark is made when the vehicle stops. These distances are dramatically long and youngsters are better able to understand the "hazard distance" as a result.

A Road-deo, with prizes, including a 10-speed bike, will be put on for the youngsters near the holidays, Pasley said.

500 Youths Hired

Almost 500 disadvantaged youths were employed in July and August in field offices of the Department of Human Resources Development it was reported recently.

The youths, aged 16 through 21, had to meet Federal Family Income Status standards and were hired as Youth Aides, which permitted them to receive on-the-job training.

A Chinese commercial jet pilot earns about $60 a month.

The supervised parking area can be reached by entering on Spring dr. "You don't have to attend Spring Valley Elementary to join in the fun", said Jerry Mulherin, carnival chairman, "Everyone is invited to this, our best carnival ever".

Vista La Mesa

The Vista La Mesa School Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor its annual Halloween carnival Saturday from 4:30 to 8 p.m. at the school, according to PTA president Bill Talbot.

In addition to new booths and a new design for the affair, which will make the carnival less crowded, the PTA will offer tacos, hamburgers, hot dogs, chili, and french fries in the cafeteria until 7 p.m.

Season Tickets For Starlight Shows on Sale

Sale of season subscription tickets for the expanded 1972-73 season of United States International University's School of Performing and Visual Arts' International Company productions began last week according to Gordon Hilker, Director of SPA, 350 Cedar st., San Diego.

"Because of our expanded program, offering seven major productions rather than the usual five," Hilker explained, "our patrons of this 1972-73 season will not only enjoy a greater variety and selection of theatre fare, but when purchasing season subscription tickets, will be enjoying a greater saving."

First production for The International Company, which is now in rehearsal under the direction of Ronald Arden, Head of Production for the School of Performing and Visual Arts, is N. Richard Nash's delightful and warm comedy, "The Rainmaker," which "unlike the humorous impact a charming con-man makes on a plain and proud spinster."

The show will open an eight evening run on Nov. 8 and play Wednesdays through Saturdays for two weeks. Curtain is 8:30 p.m. in USIU's Center for the Performing Arts Theatre East, at the Cedar st. address.

Pros Vault Into Soccer Loop Lead

The Pros, who last week were in third place, vaulted into the top spot in the midwest division of the Suburban Soccer League as the two front-runners, the Playboys and the Rascals, each lost.

The Pros romped over the Braves, 4-0, while the Playboys were blanked by the Colts, 1-0, and the Rascals fell to the Monarchs, 3-1.

In other midwest division action, the Conquistadors mashed the Marauders, 6-2, and the Chargers and Rippers battled to a 3-3 tie.

In the pee wee division, a three-way tie for first became a two-way tie after one of the leaders, the Roadrunners, lost to the Lions, 4-2.

The remaining two teams tied for the league lead with 3-0 records are the Continentals, 4-0 victors over the Royals, and Atlas United, 12-0 winners over the Celtics.

The loss for the Roadrunners dropped the team into a third place tie with the Lions. In other matches, it was the Hawks over the Razorbacks, 2-0, and the Rangers and Raiders tied, 1-1.

In the prep class, Azteca knocked off the Kingsmen, 7-0, the Kings ripped the Crusaders, 14-0, and the Torinos blitzed Parkway, 7-0.

Saturday's schedule will see the Roadrunners taking on Atlas United at 10:15 a.m. and the Raiders taking on the Continentals at 2 p.m. in the pee wee division, and the midwest division Pros against the Marauders at 12:30 p.m. Those games, along with several others, will be at Sunset Park in La Mesa.

Cranston Raps Veto Of Water Pollution Bill

President Nixon's veto of the Clean Water bill could have deprived California cities of more than $1.4 billion in federal funds for essential sewage treatment facilities, Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.) charged last week.

Cranston voted with a 52-12 majority of the Senate to override the veto. The House followed suit by a vote of 274-23.

"The President said authorizing $24 billion over the next three years to control water pollution was 'unconscionable,'" Cranston said. "I say it is unconscionable for the President to have vetoed a bill to fight pollution here at home while he continues to waste billions of dollars in extravagant military spending."

Cranston said the new law makes $1,113,760,250 in federal funds available to California cities for constructing new sewage treatment plants through fiscal 1974. The funds are available on a 75%-25% Federal-local matching formula.

In 1789, the U. S. Army had an enlistment of 700 men.

Brown Asks for Rejection Of CPO 'Open Space' Study

Dick Brown, candidate for supervisor in the Second District, moved at a Comprehensive Planning Organization meeting Friday that the CPO reject as unacceptable a consultants' report on open space because it contained inaccurate and conflicting information.

Brown is a member and past chairman of the CPO Policy Committee.

CPO members voted unanimously on an amended motion to refer the report back to an ad hoc committee on open space.

Brown called the report "totally unacceptable" and said it was not the same report voted on by CPO Policy Committee members at a June 19 meeting.

"This report contains an entirely different map than the one we voted on June 19," Brown said. "It is a composite of alternatives rather than the map we saw."

"The text on the back of the map is in conflict with the printed report. It reflects the opinion of the consultants who prepared the report rather than what was accepted by the CPO Policy Committee," Brown said.

During Friday's CPO meeting, Brown moved that a joint meeting be held with the Policy Committee and the ad hoc committee on open space.

The motion also suspended any present or future negotiations with consulting firms on preparation of phase two of the report.

In a separate activity, he instructed his attorneys to demand a "retraction" under pain of a suit for libel from five area newspapers in which advertisements placed by his opponent purported to show that taxes had increased under Brown's term as El Cajon City councilman.

Youth Center Jobs On Priority List

Jobs is still the major need at the Lemon Grove Youth Center. Dale Wood, Center director said this week that any kind of job that requires muscular activity is wanted. Any kind of local cleanup job or delivery would help out the 20-40 youngsters who frequent the place. One youngster, recently involved in a drug charge, is trying desperately to get back into the flow of community life as a respected citizen. A part-time job will help him do it.

Money, as always, is needed to operate the Youth Center. Some of the funds come from a subscription campaign waged continuously by this publication. For every new subscriber fifty cents is given to the Center when he pays his bill.

The Center is being operated two days a week—Friday afternoon and all day Saturday.
